

PENNSYLVANIA - MD 14

PENNSYLVANIA is in the Northeastern and Mid-Atlantic regions of the U.S.A. It was one of the original 13 colonies and was the site (Philadelphia) where the Declaration of Independence was signed in 1775. One of the big tourist attractions even today is the Liberty Bell in Freedom Square in Philadelphia. The State is proud of the heavy population of both the Amish and Mennonite communities where basic farming rules supreme. There are almost 13 million residents in what is often referred to as the "Keystone State". The capital is Harrisburg. In 1920 the first Lions Club was organized in Pittsburgh.

NOTE: There were only two Multiple District 14 pins officially issued in 1981, including a stickpin and shown on page PA-2. The two pins are poly coated and contain the wording "300th ANNIVERSARY WM PENN LAMD GRANT PENNSYLVANIA." The five similar pins shown on this page were produced using a semi-cloisonné finish. The wording on these pins are "THE LIONS OF PENNSYLVANIA SALUTE THE STATES 300th ANNIVERSARY." Unless we are advised otherwise, we must assume that these pins are samples that were never officially issued. Although we know of only three sets of these pins, there very well could be more.

Miscellaneous Pins

NOTE: The pins on this page were issued in the name of Multiple District 14, Pennsylvania, and are included in the collections of most serious collectors of Pennsylvania pins. They are shown in the interest of documenting the pins from the Keystone State that clearly indicate that they are MD-14 pins. We welcome comments regarding the origin of these pins and/or the manner in which they were traded.
