

WISCONSIN - MD 27

WISCONSIN

1848

WISCONSIN is located in the North-Central region of the U.S.A. and is part of what is referred to as the Midwest. The State is known world-wide for the production of cheese and cheese products. As a matter of fact, some of the residents are referred to as "cheese-heads". Wisconsin has a population in excess of 5.6 million people and Madison is the capital. The first Lions Club was Madison (Central), which was admitted into Lionism in 1921. The State joined the Union in 1848 and provided almost 100,000 troops to the Union during the American Civil War.
